Driven professional transitioning from academia to technology, with a focus on web development and UX design. Leveraging six years of teaching experience at UCSD to enhance communication and problem-solving skills, I am completing the Meta Front End Professional Developer certificate and have developed several projects with React. My UX design internship at Clave Soluciones has equipped me with hands-on experience in creating user flows, wireframes, and prototypes. This career shift underscores my commitment to continuous learning and proactive problem-solving in technology.
